The Trilateral Presidents Meeting of UNA-ROK, UNA-China, and UNA-Japan with the participation of the president of WFUNA was held in Seoul, Korea, on 19 September, 2012.

The participants discussed the theme of "International Peace and the Role of the United Nations: Possible Influence of the Common Culture and Tradition on the Activities of the Three Countries at the United Nations" and exchanged candid views on related issues.

They agreed to make best efforts on the basis of commonality of culture and tradition of the three countries, to help bridge differences existing on their part regarding various issues of the United Nations.

In particular, they expressed their deep concerns on the issues of territorial disputes existing among the three countries, and committed to help resolve the disputes through continuing contacts and dialogue.

They agree to continue this process of the Trilateral Meeting annually in tandem with the Trilateral Youth Forum.

They thanked the offer of UNA-Japan to host the next meeting in Hokkaido in September next year.
